We always attempt to ascertain that reviewers are fair in their judgment and provide expertise, assisting the authors and the editors to ensure that the journal readers can trust a reliable source of information. While the editorial board members ultimately decide, they rely on our expert reviewers to (i) provide a constructive and informed critique of the submitted work; (ii) determine the scientific merit and originality of the work, and suggest how to improve it; (iii) note any ethical concerns and alert the editor of any potential conflict of interest. Our readers should be grateful to our reviewers, who ensure that (i) the high standards of La Medicina del Lavoro | Work, Environment and Health are maintained; (ii) the journal rejects incorrect or flawed research; (iii) all articles cite relevant work. The reviewers are the backbone of the journal. Furthermore, they generously volunteer to contribute their expertise for the success of our journal and the quality of the final published papers. To help recognize the importance of reviewing, La Medicina del Lavoro | Work, Environment and Health has partnered with Publons to give reviewers official recognition for their peer review work.
